A detailed red-ochre fresco on a wall, depicting a classical scene. The scene is set within a large, vaulted architectural structure, possibly a temple or a grand hall, with columns and a pediment visible. In the center, a woman in a long, flowing dress is seated on a horse, holding a large, ornate vase or bowl. To her right, another woman stands, also in a long dress, holding a staff or scepter. In the foreground, a man in a long, patterned tunic and a wide-brimmed hat is seated on a horse, looking towards the woman with the vase. To his right, another man stands, holding a staff. The background is filled with various figures, including children and adults, some holding objects, and architectural details like columns and a pediment. The overall style is characteristic of ancient Greek or Roman art, with a focus on narrative and idealized figures.
