PROPOSED DESIGN

A detailed rendering of a proposed dining room design. The room features a long, polished wooden dining table set for a formal meal with white plates, glassware, and silverware. The table is flanked by elegant, upholstered chairs with gold-colored frames. A large, ornate crystal chandelier hangs from the ceiling, which is decorated with a circular fresco of a winged figure. The walls are adorned with large windows and columns, and the floor is made of dark wood. A vase of white flowers sits on the table. The overall atmosphere is one of classic luxury and elegance.
